VOORHEES, NEW JERSEY: Chief Bordi and the Voorhees Police Department would like to extend our deepest sympathies to all those impacted by the horrific attack at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, including the responding Officers of the Pittsburgh Police Department that were shot. Our thoughts and prayers are with them all!

At this time, there are no known local threats, but you should know your police department remains vigilant in our efforts to keep the community safe and have increased our police presence. As a reminder, public safety is a partnership with your community. Please report suspicious activity. If you hear or see something, say something.

For more information of this release, please contact PIO Captain Carmen Del Palazzo.
