Bomb Threat

VOORHEES TWP. NJ 1/2/20: On Thursday, January 2nd, 2020 at approximately 11:09 am, Voorhees Police was made aware of a bomb threat at the Voorhees Middle School on Holly Oak Drive. Voorhees Police coordinated with school personnel to evacuate students and staff. K9 teams from the Camden County Sheriff's Department and surrounding jurisdictions were used to assist with a search of the school, which was subsequently rendered safe. The on-scene investigation was turned over to Detectives from our Criminal Investigation Bureau. If you have any information to report, please contact Voorhees Police at 856-428-5400 or use our tip line at media@vtpd.com.
